GEORG JENSEN

Founded in Denmark in 1904, Georg Jensen now has over 100 stores in 12 countries, and Berridges are among the top ten retailers in the country. Starting life as a silversmith creating exclusive silver jewellery, Jensen now applies its superior craftsmanship to a wide range of gold and silver jewellery, watches, and hollowware. Jensen's jewellery is pure Scandinavian design style; favoured around the world, we are able to showcase many of its wonderful pieces of jewellery.

This year has seen the launch of the Cave Collection. A new array of stunning necklaces, rings and earrings in yellow gold, white gold and silver. Designed by Jacqueline Raburn. Following on from the fabulous Zephyr necklace which was so popular last season, a matching bracelet and earrings have been introduced to the range.

If you are still looking for Christmas present inspiration the Georg Jensen collection at Berridges is well worth a look, this beautiful range of jewellery features simple yet elegant lines that bring a touch of understated chic.

Chiampesan

Chiampesan are a family based Italian chain manufacturer and incidentally are related to the Fope family. Specialising in hand assembled quality necklets and bracelets in 18 carat gold, their beauty lies in the fact that none of the pieces have hollow sections, they are all solid. Some of the link designs date back to when the company formed in 1950 and have gone on to become classics.

The romance of pearls

The new range of chocolate Tahitian pearl jewellery is now on display at Berridges, and really looks good enough to eat! Chocolate pearls are the most up to date colour in pearls, sourced in Tahiti they are treated to create the unique brown colour. Created by the black lipped oyster native to the warm waters of Tahiti, the light grey shades of pearl are used which turn a rich colour of brown after treatment.

Every piece is unique and is sourced by international pearl dealer Europearls, one of the largest pearl traders in the world. Our trading relationship goes back for more than 30 years and like Berridges it is family owned. They pride themselves on being at the forefront when it comes to seeking new stock and pinpointing new trends.

If you are looking for something truly unique and beautiful then chocolate pearls are sure to tempt you. Earrings are priced from £400 and a stunning row as seen above is £3,750.

Tradition of excellence

Welcome to our Autumn/Winter 2007 newsletter. With yet another year drawing to a close both Angela and myself are really looking forward to 2008, as our shop in Dial Lane will be refurbished early in the new year. An exciting time for us, which will see the shop being redesigned blending its architectural heritage with a new cutting edge modern design for the stylish interior and displays.

Serving discerning customers throughout East Anglia we will continue our commitment to offer the highest standards of customer service combined with first class products including many prestigious brands. It is gratifying to learn that here in Suffolk, Berridges is one of the top ten retailers of Georg Jensen jewellery in the country.

Our newsletter is a snapshot of our jewellery, but this cannot replicate the experience of handling the jewellery and seeing for yourself the brilliance of the diamonds, the weight of the gold or the lustre of the pearls. We hope the newsletter may give you some ideas for that special gift and why not round off your visit by indulging in some wonderful homemade cooking, in the upstairs restaurant. Fresh homemade scones baked fresh every morning, homemade pastas, quiches soups and fresh meat dishes are always available.

Have a wonderful Christmas and New Year

We look forward to seeing you all soon

Christopher and Angela Hardman
